

A detailed site plan for the Stonechase development. The plan shows a large, irregularly shaped pond on the left side, surrounded by a green buffer zone with small tree icons. To the right of the pond is a large, rectangular building footprint, likely a school or community center, also surrounded by a green buffer. Further to the right is a smaller, rectangular pond, also with a green buffer. The entire development is bounded by a road on the right, labeled 'COUNTY ROAD 500'. The plan is divided into several colored zones: a brown zone at the top, a light green zone in the middle, and a yellow zone at the bottom. The text 'Stonechase' is prominently displayed in the center, with 'ARC Initial Review' below it.
