

Committee Interest Application Form

Positions are available to serve on various boards and committees within the Town of McCordsville. Applicants must be residents of the Town of McCordsville, with the exception of the Planning and Zoning Committee.

Town boards and committees functions are as follows:

The McCordsville Division of the Board of Zoning Appeals – The board’s purpose is to conduct hearings and render decisions on appeals, variances, special exceptions or changes of non-conforming uses and to hear other petitions deemed to fall within its purview. The board consists of five (5) members and meets periodically.

The Parks Board – This board looks at the feasibility of acquiring, preserving and managing park land within the Town. The board will work to establish a network of greenway corridors that interconnect the community and link the multi-use path systems within the Town, as well as to work with neighboring municipalities to encourage their linking to the McCordsville multi-use trail system. The board consists of five (5) members. The boards meets every other month, usually the third Thursday of the month.

The Planning and Zoning Committee – This committee is responsible for reviewing housing and other developments within the Town to insure the development complies with the regulations of the Town. The Planning and Zoning Committee serves in an advisory capacity to the Hancock County Area Plan Commission. The committee consists of five (5) voting members and two (2) ex-officio members. The five voting members must be residents of the Town or owners of property within the Town limits. This committee meets monthly, the third Tuesday of the month.

The Redevelopment Commission – This commission looks for ways to provide economic development and redevelopment of the old town center, as well as blighted areas. The Commission consists of five (5) members, with three (3) members appointed by the President of the Town Council and two (2) members appointed by the Town Council. This committee meets periodically.
