B. General Department Update
  1. Officer Carder, Officer Case and Officer Smith had a marijuana bust of about 100 pounds and around $62,000.00 of cash in the beginning of August 2020. That is still an ongoing case and probably will be for a while.
  2. Officer Smith, Officer Carder and Detective Watts had a marijuana and controlled substance drug bust in the middle of September 2020. That is still an ongoing case.
  3. Initial budget in LOIT is going up which is good. The original thought it would possibly go down due to COVID happening this year.
  4. The Police Department has a build number for the new vehicles that were approved and ordered. They may be here as early as the end of October 2020.
  5. The body worn cameras made by Utility is still a project being worked on. Chief Casey is trying to come up with a way to get the price down since it has increased since the last quote. They maybe for the 2021 budget.
  6. Chief Casey got to attend Officer Barnes physical therapy appointment with her at the end of September. Officer Barnes is progressing and working very hard on her physical therapy. She actually was using a walker that day which is a big step since she has been non weight bearing since the accident.

7. Chief Casey wanted to say, "Thank you to Mrs. Ariel Schoen for helping him on some recent subpoena request that he had never had to deal with directly before now."

8. Chief Casey has been working on National Incident Based Reporting Services also known as NIBRS it is up and running, but there are a few adjustments that still need worked on. The NIBRS will be replacing Uniform Crime Reporting there will be a monthly report that generates from it.

9. Major Bell was rear ended in his police vehicle. He is okay and the vehicle has already started getting the body repair done on it.

10. Chief Casey attended the ribbon cutting/open house for Zoey's Place in Greenfield on September 16, 2020.
